FORMAT

Top 2 in pts move up and Bottom 2 in pts move down a flight the following week

Tiebreakers will go to the player that won the first head-to-head game of that flight, which is why the player in the flight with the most points from the previous week will partner with the player with the second most points, third, and then fourth.

If a player is unable to attend, then the player takes minus one point of the lowest total score of their flight that week.
